

SHOWA S-TEX ALPHA XC822

Introducing the S-TEX ALPHA XC822, the ultimate combination of high-level cut protection and dexterity engineered for durability and coverage. Its core features an 18-gauge seamless knit liner, crafted with incredibly strong tungsten cut resistant yarn, which delivers an impressive F cut resistance rating without sacrificing flexibility. For maximum resilience, a full nitrile coating completely covers the glove, ensuring superior abrasion protection while effectively sealing out the entry of both dust and liquids.
